THE OLD MAN'S GROWING OLDER.

Yes, the old man's growing older— I was looking at him there: His one hand resting on his staff, The other on his chair. He is more silent than he was, And whiter waves his hair:

His figure seems more bending.
I was looking at him there.

His hand is not as sfendy,
And his eye is not as bright,
He catcheth not our joke as soon
His foot is not as hight;
Nor joineth he our song, as in
The days that went all fair;
For the old man's growing olderI was looking at him there,

Yes, the old man's growing older, But is not loss kind and true; To all his house is open, with A ready welcome too. But yet, there is a tale, by Time Upon his brow of care; For the old man's growing older— I was looking at him there.

Various Items.

Poerio, the exiled Neapolitan, has returned to Italy. He is now in Turin. Three cities, Chicago, Boston and New York, have been the scenes of forty-four murders since the 1st of January last.

A gentleman in Waterloop Seneca county, owns a canary which with warble "Hail Columbia," without missing a note.

The new Baptist church, known as the Port land church, in Louisville, will be formally opened for worship on Sunday next.

President Buchanan declares positively that he has no wish for re-election. He will return to private life. It is stated that not a single piece of American mercantile paper laid over in Europe, during the late panic, now remains unpaid. The annual salary of the President of Hayti is fixed at twenty thousand plastres. The salaries of other officials have not been decided upon.

The New York Editorial and Typographical Association met in Convention at Syracuse on Thursday, about forty editors and publishers being present. It is stated that the conviction of Ariel Martin for murder is the first capital conviction that has taken place in Vermont for a quarter

On Tuesday morning a brakeman on the Wabash Railway was killed between Washing-ton Station and Maumee, by falling from the train while it was in motion. The law of banishment against Soulouque and his followers, voted unanimously by the Chamber of Representatives, has been at last accepted by the Senate of Hayti. On the mail route between St. Louis and San Francisco, there are 166 stations; there must be 164 changes of horses; and there are employed 1,800 horses and 91 drivers.

It is a fact worth noticing just now, that every available vessel of war of the United States not at present in commission, is being fitted out for immediate service.

The water in Lake Eric has fallen gradually since the first of April averaging three inches a week, which would make the water just wo feet lower than last summer. Dr. King, the wife poisoner, was hung at Coburg, C. W., yesterday morning. He made a speech on the gallows declaring his guilt and willingness to die. The New York Courier and Enquirer estimates that the coming crop of wheat will not be less than two hundred million bushels, or fifty millions more than the yield of last year. A gentleman named Robert Morrison, an old resident of West Troy, and at the time of his death one of the deputy sheriffs of the county, was murdered within a few rods of his residence about midnight on Friday.

On Thursday last, in New York, a plain drinking fountain, the first in the city, was erected opposite the rotunds in the City Hall Park, under the direction of the Croton Aqueduct Board.

The Niskayuna Shakers have lost another cupie. This time both parties were mem-bees of the fraternity—Brother Braham and Sister O'Neil. The matter makes quite an excitement in the little community. The income of Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati road, during the month of May last, for freights, passengers, &c., was $83,039 85, which shows an increase of $71 59 over the same menth last year. The Delaware County Republican, of Pennsylvania, brings forward the Hon. J. M. Read, of Philadelphia, as a candidate for President, upon whom, it says, all branches of the Oposition can cordially unite. We have seen it stated, that the oldest Protestant Episcopal Bishop in the United States, is Archbishop Kenrick, of Baltimore. He has been a Bishop thirty years. The diocese was established in 1789.

The trial of Feliz Sanchez, a Cuban negro, for the murder of Harman Carnon, his father-in-law, in Sullivan street, New York, on the 5th of January, was commenced on Friday be-fore Judge Russell in the General Sessions.

The New Haven Palladium says that propositions have been made by the Austrian gov-ernment for four hundred thousand dollars worth of the New Haven Volcanic Repeating

The Postmaster General has contracted with the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway Company, for the conveyance of the great Northwestern Mail direct from Detroit to Milwaukee, instead of the Chicago route. The time saved will be twelve hours.

Secretary Cobb has given notice that proposals will be received at the Treasury Department, until the 20th inst., for the issue of any portion or the whole of $5,000,000, in Treasury notes in exchange for gold, the interest not to exceed six per cent. The Piko's Peak gold excitement is likely to receive a new impetus from the almost fabu-lous accounts which now reach us, and which are of a totally different character from the gloomy reports which have previously prevailed. A destructive fire occurred on Thursday night, at No. 125 Rivington street, New York, by which upwards of one hundred workmen are thrown out of employment, and about $40 000 worth of property destroyed. The estab-lishment destroyed was the cabinet manufactory of John Faulkner. Dog killing time commenced on Monday, in New York, and during that day and Tuesday seven hundred and fifty bow-wows were con-verted into sausage meat. The killing season lasts three months, and the number killed averages two hundred a day for the whole season Bolognas are of course cheap in that city. The Louisville Democrat informs us that a few days since a young lady, while engaged with a party of friends fishing in Harrod's Creek, fell into the stream, where there was considerable depth of water. She floated safely down the current, buoyed up by her capacious hoops. The citizens of Arizona, at a recent meeting, resolved: That we the citizens of Arizona City, and vicinity, invoking the guidance and pro-tection of Divine Providence, do hereby solemnly determine, with the consent and co-operation of our fellow citizens throughout the Territory, to establish and maintain a government for ourselves.

John Burns, of the ship Tornado, recently arrived from Liverpool in New York, got into a fight on Tuesday afternoon, with Charles Stuart, one of the hands of the vessel, and stabbed him, fatally it is thought, in the abdomen with his sheath knife. The two men had quarreled during the voyage, and Stuart had threatened vengeance when the vessel arrived in port.

A TRIBE KILLED .- On Thursday morning last, the ticket clerk at the depot of the N. A. & S. Railroad, Lafayette, Ind., on entering his office discovered that some eighty dollars in bank bills had been abstracted from the money bank bills had been abstracted from the money drawer, but was unable to obtain the slightest clue to the perpetrator of the daring robbery. A search was instituted and in a short space of time the thief was discovered snugly ensconced in a large recess in the body of the frame work, which supports the money drawer. He made a daring attempt to escape, when an employee of the road, struck him an unfortunate blow with a heavy cane, crushing the skull and inflicting other mortal injuries, from which he died in a few moments without uttering a word. Truly, "the way of the transgressor word. Truly, "the way of the transgressor is hard." An inquest was held, and in the course of the investigation it was ascertained that the name of the unfortunate criminal was Mouse, a member of the large family of that name, whose depredations are familiar to our readers. A verdict was rendered in accordance with the

Every dollar of the money was recovered, and what is singular, his lamented mouseship, had "assorted" the currency with an unerring instinct. The Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio bills, (fives, tens and twenties) had been placed carefully in a corner and were untouched, while the greasy Illinois, Wisconsin and "Laporte Plankroad" furnished him a morning lunch. Lafayette Courier.

THE FROST .- The New York Evening Post, speaking of the late frost, gives us the follow-ing beautiful thoughts: "There is something impressively sublime in these quiet yet potent influences of nature, thus working in the stillness of night, and in a few hours noiselessly undoing the long and busy labors of the fillers of the soil. Like the angel that destroyed the first-born of all the houses of Egypt, an icy resence passes over the fields all bursting with the treasures of growing vegetation, and the first-born of the earth—the budding grain, the ripening fruit of spring time, chrivels away and ripering fruit of spring time, shrivels away and dies. No human power can oppose the progress of the destroying angel, nor is there any bloody sign upon the door-posts that foretells his coming. And yet the fearful visitant is sometimes foiled by agencies that man would never think of. In some places a wind sweeps over the field and the frost darsa not come within the power of its breath. In somether within the power of its breath. In another place we bear of a dense fog rising from a river, and spreading inland for miles, covering the precious grain as with a tent of cloud, and sheltering it from the biting frost."

ENGLAND AND HUMANITY. - The London Times, speculating on the military capacities which England would be able to display, in case she should be sucked into the whirlpool of a European war, remarks that "our humanity itself, which forbids rapine, imposes some check on our operations." When we hear of honesty standing in the way of a political manager, of standing in the way of a political manager, of overpowering scruples of conscience paralyzing the energies of a lawyer who is largely fed to defend a criminal, or of abhorrence for filthy lucre causing the popular clergyman to set his face piously against marrying a wealthy heiress, we look upon the whole as quite as fabulous and romantic as the most fantastic of the tales of chivalry and now when the London Times of chivalry; and now, when the London Times speaks of humanity being a check on the military operations of England, we are bound to credit the assertion to the poetical talent of that journal, at the expense of its fame for verneious prose and historical accuracy.—N. O.

Ladies Eyes.—Black-eyed ladies are most apt to be passionate and jealous. Blue-eyed-soulful, truthful, affectionate and confiding. Grey-eyed— philosophical, literary, reso lute, cold-hearted.

Hazel-eyed—quick tempered and fickle.

Ladies, which do you choose? All our cosmetics haven't touched that point yet. It is but fair to allow, however, that in the above delineation of character, much depends upon education and local circumstances—there are all shades of difference. Could we change the sales are a present a present a present and a present a prese the color of our eyes at pleasure, we should have all manners of queer admixtures—all colors except the green, because Iago warns Othello against "jealousy, the green-eyed nonster."

This point of beauty, however, as a whole is a question not yet definitely settled, and not at all likely to be.

NOT FROM "MALICE PREPENSE."—On the 7th, at Hamilton, C. W., John Mehan alics John Mitchell, was hung for the murder of Eliza Welsh. On the scaffold, he said: "She went on aggravating me till the passion rose up so that I could not keep it down, and then I took the life of the woman Eliza Welsh, for which I am now to suffer, without intending to do it before. It was the passion that got master of me, and seeing the weapon at hand, I took hold of it at once, and did it. I am the man—John Mehan—which I am very sorry for. My friends and neighbors, I have said so much and you will have your own opinions, but I hope you see that I was not before resolved on such a thing. I forgive you all, and I hope you will forgive me. THE ELASTIC Eug .- Take a good sound egg, place it in strong vinegar, and allow it to re main twelve hours; it will then become soft and elastic. In this state the egg can be squeezed into a tolerably wide mouthed bottle; when in it should be covered with water, having some soda in it. In a few hours this preparation will restore the egg to its original solidity, after which the liquid can be poured off, and the bottle dried. Then the wonder will be how the egg could be got into the bottle. A SAILOR'S DAMAGES .- A sailor got thrown from a railroad car recently, on one of the Eastern roads. When they called to see what he would demand for damages, he said he thought that it might be worth a dollar a foot more or less; and be thought the distance he was pitched was about fifteen feet. He was accordingly willing to take fifteen dollars, or he would wait until the distance was measured, and abide the result. They

THE FASHIONS.—"My son," said an old turbaned Turk, one day, taking his child by the hand in the streets of Cairo, and pointing out to him on the opposite side a Erenchman just imported, in all the elegance of Parisian coatume-"my son, look there! If you ever forget God and the Prophet, you may come to look like that." LOOKING NICE .- A term invented to keep boys off the grass, and make girls consump-tive. Dirt is an element of health, and no boy should be denied his legitimate share thereof. Clean children are always " pale and interesting."

The Harrisburg Telegraph says, a child seven years old, and weighing two hundred and fitty pounds, passed up the Cumberland Valley Railroad, the other day, accompanied by his father and mother. The boy enjoys excellent health, and in every respect is in good condition.

A man was found lying in one of the public streets in Norwalk, one day last week, with tomb-stones at his head and feet. It was dis-covered that he was dead drank, and some wag ad creeted these monuments to the memory of departed manliness. A gentleman asked a little boy in London, "What occupation does your father pursue for a living?" He replied with simplicity: "He is a dreadful accident maker, sir, for the news-

Molly, said Joe Kelley's ghost to his wife, I'm in purgatory at present. And what sort of a place is it? Faix, it is a sort of a half-way house between you and heaven, and I stand it very alsy after laving you.

Spiritualism seems to be making its way among the Mormons. Elder Pratt, in a late discourse on the efficacy of prayer, maintained that future retribution consists in being subject to the call of mediums and table tippers. This is quite a novel theory.

DR. G. W. PHILLIPS' Magic Cough Syrup Is the only reliable remedy for the rapid and sermanent cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Brouchitis Hooping-cough, Croup, Sore Threat, Bleeding Lungs and all discasses of the Threat, Lungs and Chest. This remedy is safe, reliable, and the only one that has proved itself a universal remedy for all the above discasses. The testimonials published are from our most distinguished citizens here at home, who have been cured by its magic power.

Important Testimony. From Hon. J. W. Chapman, Judge of First Judicial District, Indiana.

District, Indiana.

Madison, and., 1858.

Dr. Gro. W. Phillips, Cincinnati, Ohio;—Having used several small bottles of your "Cough Syrup, personally and in my family, and having seen its effects on others, in numerous instances of severe cold and coughs, I most cheerfully recommend it as an infallible remedy in all such cases. If this Syrup were in general use, I confidently believe a large majority of the colds, accompanied by coughs, that now terminate in Consumption, would be effectually arrested. In fact, I can see no necessity for any, who can obta a this remedy, being thus afflicted.

Respectfully yours.

J. W. CMAPMAN.

Read This, Also. From Hon. B. Storer, LL. D., Judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati.

Ourt of Chemnan.

Ciscinnati, Dec. 5, 1856.

Dr. G. W. Phillips—Dear Sir: Your Cough Mixture has been used with great success in my family. I belle, it to be a most safe and efficacious preparation for its cure of ordinary colds, as well as of chronic affections of the throat and lubes. Many of my neighbors, who have felt the good effects of this medicine, assure me that they regard it with great fewel.
